For the third year running, Asian Contemporary Art Week (ACAW) celebrates the richness and diversity of Asian contemporary art through a weeklong series of public programs in New York City, November 9 through 14. ACAW is designed to bring the wider public into direct contact with artists, scholars and a variety of exhibitions at participating galleries and museums around the city. For a complete schedule of events, visit: www.acaw.net.

On Friday, November 12 at 6:30 p.m., Asia Society will host the panel discussion "Dialogues in Asian Contemporary Art: Take 3," exploring emerging trends and new directions in the Asian contemporary art scene. Panelists will include Melissa Chiu, Asia Society; Vasif Kortun, Platform Garanti Contemporary Art Center and curator, 9th International Istanbul Biennial; and artists Shirin Neshat and Shahzia Sikander.

Other programs of Asian Contemporary Art Week include:

- Panel Discussion "The A-Bomb and the Arts" at Japan Society (November 9, 6:30 p.m.)
- Panel Discussion "Mumbai: SubUrban Fables/Raghubir Singh Retrospective" at Sepia International/The Alkazi Collection (November 10, 7:00 p.m.)
- Panel Discussion "Raqs Media Collective" at Bose Pacia Gallery (November 11, 7:00 p.m.).
- Lecture "Past in Reverse: Contemporary Art of East Asia" by Betti Sue Hertz of San Diego Museum of Art at China Institute (November 13, 6:30 p.m.)
- Weekend Symposium "Conversations Across Cultures: Tradition and Innovation in Contemporary Chinese Art and Art Education" at Columbia University's Teachers College (November 13, 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.)
- Closing Party at Columbia University's Macy Gallery (November 14, 5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.)
